8th—J. W. Riley, Rowan.
9th—J. E. Childers, Pike.
10th—Carlo Little, Clay.

Capt. H. B. Grant who died in Louisville Monday was a soldier, writer, eminent Mason and church man, was recognized throughout the United States as an authority on military tactics, Masonry and the Methodist church.

Malcolm R. Patterson, Joseph E.
Jones and W. K. McAlister are candidates for the Democratic nomination for Senator in Tennessee.
Judge Jones was the circuit judge who presided over the night rider trials at Reelfoot lake.

Many important appointments made by the President in the last few months were left unconfirmed when Congress adopted its resolution of final adjournment. Among the more important are those of Judge Richard E. Sloan of Arizona, Maj.-
Gen. W. W. Wotherspoon, Brig-
Gen. John McClelland and Judge Clinton W. Howard of the state of Washington, and John M. Cheney to be United States district judge for the southern district of Florida.
Over sixty appointments of postmasters were left unconfirmed.

Almost Lost His Life.

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dreadful cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia, but to continue with the Discovery.
I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by All Druggists.

Four Leading Batters.

Ty Cobb increased his batting average about a point yesterday, making four hits in nine trips to the platter, while the other heavy hitters—Speaker, Jackson and Lajoie—lost approximately a point, each one of them getting one hit out of four trials.

Overheard Plot.

An affidavit was made Friday in the office of Speaker Clark by a reputable resident of Washington that he had overheard a plot to assassinate Congressman Ben Johnson, of Kentucky one morning while riding on a street car.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the

Pains All Over.

Houston, Tex.—"For five years," says Mrs. L. Fulenchek, of this place, "I suffered with pains all over, especially in my back and side, and was so weak I could hardly do my house work. A friend told me of Cardui. Since taking it, I feel so much better! Now I can do all my housework and pains don't bother me any more at all." Cardui is a strengthening-building medicine. Fifty years of success have produced, amongst its many users, confidence in Cardui and what it will do. During this time, Cardui has relieved the female ailments of over a million women. Why not yours? Try it, today. Your druggist sells it.

WOMEN'S HATS SMALLER.

Paris Powers-That-Be Disapprove the Wide Hat.

Along with the banishment of the tube and hobble skirt comes the announcement that fall and winter hats for the fair sex will be very much smaller. In appearance they hark back to the joyous days when men had the courage to saunter forth in the little pancake lids now emulated in old tinsypes and on the vaudeville stage.

The powers that be in Paris who say what shall be worn have disapproved of the extremely wide hats recently effected in this country.
Milliners returning from the other side say the styles constitute a revolution.

The idea of the designers is to make the head appear as small as possible and this means not a wisp of false hair, hay, alfalfa, rag carpet, cotton waste or any other auxiliary can be worn. The woman blessed with abundant hair will have to brush it down tightly if she is to be within shouting distance of the styles.

The turbans are the most interesting. They are rather shy on matterial, but what they lack in that respect they make up "in style." Designed to fit down over the ears the head is compressed, as it were, into the smallest possible space. The hair, as a consequence, is dressed very flat in the back and on top and is pulled out on the sides and low in the front, simulating a fringe on the forehead.

Blamed A Good Worker.

"I blamed my heart for severe distress in my left side for two years," writes W. Evans, Danville, Va., "but I know now it was indigestion, as Dr. King's New Life Pills completely cured me." Best for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, constipation, headache or debility.

A Modern Eve.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 26—Benjamin L. Mitchell secured a decree of divorce from Elizabeth Post Mitchell today after he told how he found her photograph in the nude. She was posing on a table with a piece of cake in her hand. He upbraided her for allowing any man to photograph her in such a state and she promptly hit him in the eye. Finally she gave him a sound beating and kicked him out of the house.

Clarksville's Prize Beauty.

A prize was offered by a Clarksville jeweler to the handsomest girl from 12 to 16 years old who attended the Montgomery County Fair.
The winner was Miss Sarah Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Cook Roach. The prize, a beautiful neck lace, was presented by Col. L. W.
Gaines, of Trenton, in an appropriate speech.

Capt. Whitlow's Hotel Sold.

The Guthrie Hotel has been sold or leased to the Crescent News Co., of New Orleans. Capt. L. W. Whit-low's lease having expired. The change will take place Sept. 1. Capt.
Whitlow is one of the finest hotel men in Kentucky and will not be long out of the harness.

HOW JIM EDWARDS REFORMED

Incorrigible Youngster Commences Reformation By Giving Mother Money He Had Won.

Jimmy Edwards had been an incorrigible boy, and Miss Morn, who had struggled valiantly to guide him into the path of virtue, was much relieved when she heard him announce he was going to be a "good boy."

"I am so glad to hear you say that Jimmy," she said sympathetically.
"Yes'm," replied the boy, "I'm getting to be pretty old now—most fourteen—an' it's time I was tryin' to help my mother. I begun yesterday. I earned a dollar for her, just in one day."

"That was very nice, Jimmy," encouraged Miss Morn. "I'm so glad.
How did you do it?"

"Well, you know, Miss Morn, mother give me 10 cents to buy some milk, an' as I was goin' to the store, I seen some fellers shootin' craps, an'
I got in the game. I made a quarter with that time. Then the fellers quit, 'cos they said I had all the luck. I found some other fellers an' after I'd cleared 'em out I went over to the lot back of Beerstein's saloon an' played with different fellers till I earned a whole dollar. Gee, but I had luck!
Wednesday's my lucky day, I guess."

Up to Him.

"I feel that I could overcome any obstacle for you," he declared.
"There is only one obstacle that you will have to overcome to get me," she replied.

"What is it? Tell me, and I will overcome it."
"I have made up my mind that I will never marry any one whose ears stick out like the wings on a monoplane. Get yours to flatten themselves against your head and the obstacle will be overcome."

Lessons From the Past.

"Suppose you do find your honest man, Diogenes," said one of the fellows in the crowd; "how will you recognize him?"

"I'll know him," responded Diogenes, "by his habit of minding his own business and not looking like any of you chaps."

From which we learn that men who wear celluloid clothing should not approach too near a lighted lantern.

UNPLEASANT THOUGHTS.

"Here's jobs advertised for 400 men!"
"Gee! Jest skip de horrible details, won't you?"

The Boston Version.

"Chicago is a great town. Everybody boasts."
"Boston inhabitants are excessively ardent agitators for the uplift, too," responded the gentleman from that burg.

A Promised Reform.

Mrs. Hustler—When women rule there'll be no more of this "wine, women and song" thing.
Mrs. Hustler—No?
Mrs. Hustler—No; it'll be "mirth, men and music."—Judge.

His Parting Words.

"Goodby, daughter, I suppose you will be engaged a number of times this summer."
"I suppose so, dad."
"Well, you're getting along. See if you can't make one of them permanent."

More Profitable.

Ole Scribbler—I hear you have given up fiction writing.
Younger Scribbler—No; merely changed my style. I've become an advertisement writer.—Judge.

London's Girl Messengers.

Boys employed at Reuter's Telegraph Agency in Old Jewry, London, had better look to their laurels, for girl messengers are constantly being engaged in preference to the youths. The sanguine and youthful spirits of the boys have had to do with their slackness—one of their chief faults—while the placid obedience of the maiden messengers has elevated them in the estimation of their employers.

"Our girl messengers," said the manager of the traffic department of the Reuter's Agency, "perform their duties much better than the boys. The girls on an average take three messages while the boys take only two."

He Won't Limp Now.

No more limping for Tom Moore of Cochran, Ga. "I had a bad sore on my instep that nothing seemed to help till I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve," he writes, "but this wonderful healer soon cured me." Heals old, running sores, ulcers, boils, burns, cuts, bruises, eczema or piles.

Waiting For Eyes.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 26.—John Cash-in, blind newsboy, is waiting for a condemned murderer to die so he can get the dead man's eyes.

Dr. Phinzy Calhoun is to have charge of the operation when Clay dies. Here is the plan:

Clay's eyes will be removed immediately after he has paid the penalty. They will be placed in a warm saline solution and hurried to a hospital, where Cashin will be waiting.
The cornea, the seeing part of the eye, will then be put in place of Cashin's useless cornea. Then, Dr.
Calhoun says, the optic nerve, long unused, will exercise its function, and Cashin will see.

Hot For Winter.

At Water Valley, Miss., when Henry C. Winter, her brother-in-law, with whom she makes her home, threatened Friday to whip her, so her story goes, Zella Sweeney, 17 years old, picked up a revolver and fired five shots at him, four of them taking effect, one under the left eye, the others in the body. Winter is not expected to live. The girl is under arrest. Winter is one of the family of Winter brothers of Clarksville, one of whom was at one time in business here.

Gen. Bramwell Booth.

Gen. Bramwell Booth, who succeeds as Commander-in-Chief of the Salvation Army, is the eldest son of Gen. William Booth, and was chosen by his father before his death to take the leadership of the great organization. Bramwell Booth, who is 56 years old, was born in Halifax, England, and could be said to have been reared in the Salvation Army. He entered the ranks in the humblest station and worked his way up by degrees until in 1882 he was given the rank of Chief of Staff. He is well educated and is thoroughly familiar with the organization in all of its departments and methods of operation, and in his official capacities has traveled in every land where the Salvationists are stationed. Although lacking of the force and magnetism of his father, he is said to have fine executive ability and is thoroughly devoted to the cause of which he becomes the leader.

Shocking Sounds

in the earth are sometimes heard before the terrible earthquake, that warn of the coming peril. Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape those dangerous maladies, Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease.
Take Electric Bitters at once and see backache fly and all your best feelings return. "My son received great benefit from their use for kidney and bladder trouble," writes Peter Bondy, South Rockwood, Mich., "It is certainly a great kidney medicine." Try it. 50 cents at
